Dear old Central, far-famed Central,
 Thou shalt never fail;
 Round thy name there clings a tendril
 Of tradition's tale.

DEDICATION

To the memory of those once among us, who made the supreme sacrifice in defense of our country, we dedicate this book.

"In earth which has resounded to the drums and trappings of many conquests, they rest in the quiet of God's acre with the brave of all the world."

As the war dwarfed by its magnitude all conquests of the past, so the splendor of human heroism reached a height never witnessed before.

Our gratitude to them is boundless. We shall always hold fast the spirit bequeathed to us by those who fell; their name liveth forevermore."

Dear Martha,
It has been well knowing you this year. I hope to see you again next year. Lots of love to a sweet girl.
Carl Capleson

Dear Martha

FOREWORD

After countless questions about our 1946 year-book theme, we offer a word (and then some!) of explanation.

The war is over, and we hear more about gala high school activities than about rationing and battlefronts—the words most of us grew up with. Now, there is LIFE—a different kind of LIFE, and it is abundant in Central's halls. We hope that in looking back over these pages of LIFE at Central, you'll find happiness and companionship—also your picture, somewhere!

Dear Martha,
 I think you are a very sweet girl.
 I have enjoyed knowing you
 Lots of luck.

FACULTY

W. W. Clement, Principal

The recently published report of the Harvard Committee on The Objectives of a General Education in a Free Society contains a significant section on "Heritage and Change." Central High School should be peculiarly concerned with the importance of these elements in its program of progress. In continuous existence through the seventy years during which high school attendance throughout the United States has grown from 80,000 to upwards of 7,000,000, our high school has its roots in a splendid heritage, of which we are deeply conscious and justly proud. From this heritage we must constantly draw inspiration. But whereas in our school's beginnings the goal of all was college entrance, today not more than one in five of high school graduates enter college. It is hoped that as the Class of '46 leave our halls they will find that their high school experience will prove to have been, in the language of the report, "as fair to the fast as to the slow, to the hand-minded as to the book-minded, and while meeting the separate needs of each, this experience will have fostered that fellow feeling between human being and human being which is the deepest root of democracy."

FACULTY

No one can fail to be thrilled as he walks about Central's corridors and sees the pictures of past graduating classes. Among those pictures, one will recognize the faces of people who have won success in many lines of work since their graduation. Now, the Class of 1946 is about ready to join the thousands who have graduated before you. Your teachers wonder what the future holds for each of you. That future lies largely in your hands. We have tried to give you training, attitudes, and ideals to help you. We count on your bringing credit both to yourselves and to Central. We will miss you, and our best wishes will always go with you.

RETIRING TEACHERS

Mr. O. F. Dubach

Mr. Dubach became Principal of Central in 1920, at the age of forty-five. In that position he served longer than any of his predecessors, rounding out a full quarter of a century, and giving it the most fruitful years of his life. Of himself and his talents he gave freely and copiously—to his associates, to the students and patrons of Central. Withal, his family, church, and civic interests did not lag, nor were his recreational needs and desires neglected.

May the "Giver of all Good Gifts" grant him many more years of good health, service, and happiness!

MR. DAVIS

Mr. Richard O. Davis was born and reared in Kentucky. Following his graduation from the University of Kentucky, where he majored in history and languages, he taught in Good Night College, Good Night, Texas, for two years before coming to Kansas City, and at Manual High School before he came to Central in 1917.

Mr. Davis is a prodigious reader, greatly interested in present-day economic and political problems, and is active in church work.

On their return from an extensive trip through the West, he and Mrs. Davis plan to spend their time at the family home in Merriam, Kansas, where he raises beautiful flowers for a hobby.

MISS WESTERFIELD

Miss Westerfield came to Central in 1921 and has taught Social Science to many classes since that time. The interest of her students was shown in their organization of the Social Science Society, which brought many outstanding local speakers to their meetings.

Her active interest in the Woman's Dining Club, of which she is a past president, her plans for some travel soon, her love of reading, flowers and music, will enable her to continue the rich life of her days at Central.

MISS WHITNEY

After graduating from Central, Miss Whitney spent four years in Germany continuing her musical education. She made appearances in all sections of the country as a concert violinist, returning to Central to teach music. Many nationally and locally known singers received early instruction and inspiration from her. She is at present studying Russian, which adds one more to the many languages in which she is proficient.

MISS WYNNE

Miss Wynne moved from her native Atlanta, Georgia, in time to graduate as salutatorian of her class at Central. The last twenty-five years she taught Latin in Central, making occasional sallies into the fields of English, German and Spanish. She now has time to enjoy her home, play her piano, read her favorite essays and whodunits in German, French, Spanish, Italian and Russian, and to attend ball games!

To these former teachers of Central, the students and faculty wish to express our sincere appreciation for their service to our school. We are sure that they have made real contributions toward a better way of life and thought for all of us with whom they have come in contact.

Mr. R. O. Davis

Dear Martha,

Knowing you for just such a short time has been one of the pleasures of high school for me. I had loads of fun rushing you this fall and during that time I learned a lot about you --- you're very sweet and charming, but what I admire so much about you is your character. Such high ideals! I hope you can keep them with you always, for they're sure to carry you far, far above the average.

Only the best can be for you, Martha, and I hope you attain all the desires you wish. To a darling, wonderful friend,

This year brought another successful Red Cross drive to Central. A total of $963.43 was collected, an average of $0.51 per pupil.

But this should not overshadow the work done throughout this year by the active Junior Red Cross group and the many activities produced by the art, clothing, foods, and practical arts classes.

Some outstanding accomplishments have been made during the year. A poster contest for the 1947 drive was held, and a poster made by Jack Henderson is now in Washington, D. C., competing with the nation's best. Central also was represented on the All-City Council by Shirley Smith, as corresponding secretary.

Dear Martha,

How d'ya like the patriotic page I write on? Honestly, I surely wish the "M.H.S. page" wasn't so crowded.

Still Martha, here we are in the third great year of our friendship, which seems to grow even stronger with every passing day. I'll ever thank you for the part of my life I've had with you as my friend and now my real sister.

I said in club the day now I have a lot of wonderful sisters and now I'm not the only child anymore. I guess it's the same with you but anyway neither of us are lonely because each other and many other wonderful sisters. Remember Martha we were not ever going to end our friendship — never. Ever since the very first day of school in the 7th grade you've been one of my dearest and closest friends and I sincerely hope you'll always be. All my love to a dear friend and "sis".

Dear Martha,
 I'm so glad you accepted a bid from Minerva. You're just the girl that she needs to uphold her standards. Since you've been in club you've shown me that nothing comes between you and that's the way it should be. Next year you'll be one of the outstanding Juniors and we'll be more than proud of you. Loads of love and a big hug to my darling girl.

Dear Martha,
 Well another year has passed to bad! Your real a swell bid. Good luck and hope of success.
 Love always,
 M.L.S.

The Central Hi-Y Club made real progress in the 1945-'46 season. Three chapters, one each of Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, were organized. "Doc" Waterhouse sponsored the Sophomores; Mr. Myron Rybolt, the Juniors; and B. W. McDaniel, the Seniors. Each chapter was limited to 30 members, and affiliated with the National Hi-Y Fellowship.

Outstanding program events of the year included: monthly suppers at Southeast Presbyterian Church for all chapters; Central Football Banquet at First Lutheran Church; publication of semester program booklet; sponsoring of series of pre-Easter programs for Central students; meetings held in members' homes; annual Mother and Son Banquet; attendance at Hi-Y district conference at Rosedale.

Outstanding also were the club's service projects. Many members helped, such as Gra-Y club leaders in the grade schools. Hi-Y raised $50.00 for the Y. M. C. A. World Service program. Leadership for the Saturday morning physical education program for boys of the community held by the "Y" in Central Junior High was supplied by the Hi-Y, as well as umpires, scorekeepers and coaches for the Gra-Y Softball League.

Truly, Central Hi-Y made an honest effort to live up to its purpose "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and the community high standards of Christian character."

The 1945 Eagles were a team to be feared throughout the entire season. They boasted an ever-fighting, hard-driving bunch of clean football-minded boys. Their record, although not perfect, takes its place among the other outstanding teams in Central's past. The close of the season found Central in third place with five games won and two lost. Five lettermen returned from the previous year, four of whom were regulars. Although this was a very potent fact, the squad was greatly weakened by the loss of Jasper Mariner, returning letterman, due to a serious knee injury received during the preceding summer.

In the first game of the season, the Blue Eagles crossed the state line to Kansas to play their old rival, the Wyandotte Bulldogs, in a nonleague game. The game ended in a 6 to 6 deadlock, with Central's Joe Sembler tallying the touchdown for Central from the 1-foot line and Wilson scoring for Wyandotte.

Central opened the interscholastic league with a rousing 20 to 0 victory over the Paseo Pirates. Featuring three touchdown passes from the talented arm of Johnny Willingham to the versatile Hank Menze, the Eagles displayed power through the air that threw fear into the league contenders.

Following the Paseo Pirates, came the Westport Tigers, who gave the fans one of the finest games of the season. The field was water soaked to such an extent that the Blue and White's air power was virtually powerless. It was a seesaw battle throughout the entire game with many fine runs by the signal-calling quarterback of Central, Bob Owens. With less than four minutes to play, Central of Westport went over for a tally. The conversion failed and Westport led 6 to 0. Central fans became disgruntled and began to leave. After returning the kick-off to our own 44-yard marker, John Willingham came through with a 16-yard pass to Menze, who knocked it in the air, ran on to it, and tore forty yards to pay-dirt. Johnny Webster's "golden toe" saved the day for Central as the game ended Central 7, Westport 6.

The following week the Eagles and the Northeast Vikings fought it out for first place. The Vikings opened up with a surge of power that pushed them ahead at the half 7 to 0 with Minnick doing the damage for Northeast. In the second half, Central received the kick-off; Delvin Norris, wing end, intercepted a Central pass and ran twenty yards to score. Behind 13 to 0, Central took to the air with Willingham and Owens tossing and Menze, Wilhelm, and Pascutti receiving. Pascutti scored early in the fourth quarter on a 5-yard pass from Willingham, and with Webster's conversion the score stood 13 to 7. Later in the fourth period the Eagles drove for another touchdown. Owens tossed a 15-yard pass to Willingham, who lateraled to Pascutti, who ran thirty yards, where he was stopped by a lucky shoestring tackle on the 5-yard marker. Here the breaks turned against Central. A five-yard penalty was called; three fumbles, two of which were fumbled over the goal line, followed. This gave the Vikings possession of the ball, and they kicked out of danger. With only a minute remaining, Central tried desperately to score again but was caught behind its own goal, giving Northeast a victory and two points, Northeast 15, Central 7.

Seeking revenge, the Eagles then took on the Southwest Indians and easily downed them 19 to 0. Bill Schwarz, end, up the first touchdown by recovering a Southwest fumble early in the first period. On a series of running plays, Owens took it over from the 6-inch line. Webster's kick was good and the score stood 7 to 0. The second and third period found the ball in midfield most of the time. In the fourth quarter, however, the Eagles loosed their power and scored two touchdowns with Webster scoring from the 1-foot line and Menze scoring on a neat pass from Willingham. Southwest made a bid to score on a long pass but was stopped on the 2-yard marker as the gun sounded, ending the game with Central 19 and Southwest 0.

The second defeat of the season for the Blue and White was dealt out by the powerful Southeast Knights. The Knights scored early in the first quarter when Bill Snyder romped over from the five-yard line. Central came bouncing back with the now famous passing combination (Willingham to Menze plus Webster's educated toe) and netted 7 points, tying the score. Dale Leathers of Southeast, on the first play after the kick-off, broke away for sixty-three yards and seven more points. Southeast again scored late in the third period from the 1-yard line after recovering a Central fumble. The final score of the game came when Willingham uncorked another pass to Menze in the end zone. The game ended with the Knights holding the Eagles on the 1-foot line with the score standing 21 to 13 in favor of Southeast.

The following week Central downed the Crimson of Manual by the convincing score of 34 to 0. Willingham opened the scoring spree in the second period with a forty-yard run to score. Webster kicked the first of his three conversions for the seventh point. With three minutes remaining in the first half, Owens intercepted a Manual pass and carried it to the Manual 25. He then threw a 7-yard pass to Willingham, who maneuvered beautifully for the remaining 18 yards to score. In the third period, Owens again hit Willingham with a 15 and a 10-yard pass that broke Willingham away for his third touchdown. In the fourth period with Central deep in Manual territory, Owens skirted left end for a twenty-yard pass to Menze in the end zone for the final score of the game which ended Central 34, Manual 0.

In the final game of the season the East Bears lost to the tune of 18 to 6. Willingham scored early through center from the five. Copenhaver of East tossed a pass to Sayles in the end zone to end the first half 6 to 6. On the very first play of the third quarter Willingham heaved a 20-yard pass to Menze, who ran 21 yards to score. In the fourth quarter Willingham threw another 20-yard pass, this time to Schwarz in the end zone, ending the season with 5 wins, one tie, and two defeats.

Central received high honors by having Hank Menze, end, Dick Leedy, center, and John Willingham, halfback, on the 1st team All-City all-stars. Also, Joe Sembler, tackle, Alex Pappas, guard, and Bob Owens, quarterback, were placed on the second team all-stars. Bill Schwarz, end, and Jimmy Brown, guard, were on the honorable mention list.

At the award assembly in the school auditorium, Coach Slaymaker presented fourteen boys with first team letters. Hank Menze and Joe Sembler were elected co-captains of the squad by their teammates.

MR. ROBERTS

Mr. Roberts deserves much credit for the work which he has done this year. This is the first year in which he has been in charge of the school finances and acted as athletic manager, but he served as football coach when he first came to Central.

We wish to contribute these few words to show our appreciation for the fine work he has done and will continue to do in the future.

BASKETBALL

BASKETBALL

This year's basketball team of '46 was one of the best teams in scoring Central has ever seen. There were five returning lettermen: Bob Holm, John Willingham, Randy Malone, Lee Jones, and Bob Owens.

In the opening game of the season, Central displayed power by defeating the De LaSalle Cadets, 40 to 29, but the following week the Eagle Quintet met defeat at the hands of the ever-potent Wyandotte Bulldogs to the tune of 49-36. The very next night found the Eagles on the low end of a 45 to 37 decision with the Irish at Lillis. Bouncing back, the Centralites trounced the Hogan Rams the following week 54 to 26. In this game, high scoring honors went to Bob Holm with 12 points.

The Eagles continued on their high-point spree by defeating William Chrisman 51 to 28. Bob Jenkins, junior forward, tossed seven baskets for top scoring honors.

In the initial game of the league, Central lost a closely contested game with the Southwest Indians, 36 to 32. In the second game of the season, Manual's Vic Sellarra, in the last fifteen seconds of the game, sunk the goal that favored Manual, 52 to 51. High honors went to Central's own Johnny Willingham with 19 points.

As if in revenge, the Blue Eagles came back with a smashing 59 to 27 victory over East, setting a new scoring record for the league, with Willingham and Malone bringing down the laurels with 17 and 16 points, respectively.

The Eagles' worst defeat of the season was dealt out by the championship Northeast Vikings by the score of 35 to 20. As in other games, Lee Jones played a splendid floor game for Central.

Leaving the league, Central dropped another basketball thriller to the Ward Cyclones of Kansas in a very close game, 26 to 24.

Defeat again met the Eagles, this time from the able men of Paseo. The board read 41 to 30, with Randy Malone and Owens scoring 13 and 10 points, respectively, to lead the Eagle attack.

Ill luck again met the Eagle squad. In a three-minute overtime session with only fifteen seconds remaining, Jack Wray of Westport laid in a setup, giving his team a 35 to 33 victory. Central's fighting spirit was ably shown by the fine game Clarence Darrah, Church Anderson and Kenny Webster exhibited.

The final game of the season found the ever-fighting Eagles in another close ball game which was finally won by the Knights from Southeast, 35 to 28.

Central's spirited basketball club was recognized by having Johnny Willingham placed on the second Interscholastic All-Stars and Lee Jones on the Honorable Mention list.

TENNIS

D. Coleman, L. McCracken, M. Frumhoff, J. McDaniel, C. Phillips, Mr. Alexander.

The fall of 1945 found Central with no experienced tennis players back. Spring rains interfered with the practice matches usually scheduled, and summer play had been only moderate. About a dozen boys answered the call in September, and Jerry McDaniel, Charles Phillips, Donald Coleman, LeRoy McCracken and Marvin Frumhoff were selected to represent Central in the Interscholastic Meet.

Marvin Frumhoff lost the first round singles to Norman

Apple of Southwest, who went undefeated through the meet to win the championship. Coleman-McCracken doubles team met Huhn-Fingersh of Paseo, who defeated them 8-1, 6-1, and who later were themselves defeated in the finals. Phillips-McDaniel, the other doubles team, met the Pack-Soxman combination from Southeast, losing 6-2, 3-6, 3-6. The Pack-Soxman team beat Huhn-Fingersh for the doubles championship.

GOLF

In the annual fall golf tournament, Central High School was represented by seven boys, Captain Chuck Dietrich, Bill Stivers, Jim Higgins, Jim Henderson, Jack Snyder, as regulars, with Floyd Blair and Dudley Mullen as alternates.

This year, the tournament was held at Swope Park Municipal Golf Course Number One. This is one of the hardest courses in Kansas City. The regular seventy-two-hole contest was played with Southwest winning first place, and with Paseo, Southwest, Westport and Central finishing in that order.

Coach Blackford is expecting a smoother-working team for the coming spring meet. The boys are getting accustomed to the strain of playing in a tournament. Here's wishing the team the best of luck!

Mr. Blackford, D. Mullen, J. Snyder, J. Higgins, J. Henderson, B. Blair, C. Dietrich.

Dear Martha:
I finally got back a place to write. I say I haven't been trying to sign in I haven't wanted to think of you. I want to think of you. I think you're really your tapes!!

With "Sportsmanship" the keynote of the Physical Education Department, Girls' Athletics, under the able direction of Miss Hazel Purnell, Miss Gertrude Jones and Miss Marian Storms, is recognized as one of the school's foremost departments. Through their efforts during the years, interest has increased in Girls' Athletics. The teachers, with their pep, enthusiasm, and thorough knowledge of their work, have made physical education a favorite class for girls.

As the seasons roll around, they bring with them various "Sportsdays," including hockey, basketball, and individual sports. Whether these "Sportsdays" result in victory or defeat, they are received in the characteristic Central spirit.

The student managers of intramural sports have very capably assumed their responsibilities and have aided their instructors immeasurably. Higher goals are continually being set for these girls, making the Gym Department one of which the whole school can be justly proud.

I know everything you're really doing. Love, Smithy S. M. S.

Sgt. Carl Hoffman
Lieut. Col. Jerry McDaniel; Major Wallace Behnke

Emotions were mixed as the Central R.O.T.C. battalion began its 1945-'46 season. Under a new and vigorous city commander, Captain Clarence V. Herndon, the outlook was bright, for the R.O.T.C. Central's battalion totaled 225, the second largest score in the city.

Yet every cadet grieved at the loss of popular Sergeant Neal Grubb, who received his discharge from the army and left Central after six weeks of the school year. Stepping efficiently into Sergeant Grubb's vacancy, came Technical Sergeant Carl Hoffman, formerly of Southeast, who organized and started Central's Blue Eagle battalion toward a successful season.

Under the new regulations, Central was eligible for a Lieutenant Colonel as battalion commander. Jerry McDaniel rose to lead the battalion in this position. But by placing high on the test for cadet Colonel, he became regimental Supply Officer, and Major Wallace Behnke took over the battalion reins in February. Able assistants were the battalion Executive Officer, Major Dick Whaley; Adjutant, Captain Harold Altman; Plans and Training, Captain Don Zook; and Intelligence and Supply Officer, First Lieutenant Gerald Rhodes.

Leading A, B and C companies were Captains David Duvall, Jack Botz, and Jack Arthur, respectively. The seconds-in-command of these companies were First Lieutenants Jesse Merritt, Dwayne Greiger and Aaron Glickstein.

Heading the platoons all this year for A Co. were: Lieutenants Burford McCorkle and Harold Isham; B Co., Lieutenants Harold Zimmerman and Richard Martin; and C Co., Lieutenants Gerald Schmidt and Norman Besheer.

Although relinquishing their third place cup, Central's rifle team placed fifth in the city standings. Outstanding for the Eagle targeteers were Louis Anderson, Raymond Anderson, Robert Baker, Richard Bucher, Eugene Calcara, Archie Curtis, Glen Heck, Charles Hick, Ladd Hersh, Robert Melton, William Paradise, Harlo Sterrett, Warren Stuessi, Cecil Warnell and Fred Bonderer. All but three of these sharpshooters will return for 1946-'47, and hope is high for winning the first place cup.

The annual R.O.T.C. events found the Central battalion taking an active part. During the Armistice Day Parade, the Central cadets placed second in the contest for the best-looking battalion. At the revival of the R.O.T.C. "circus" held April 12, Central's display of precision drill was well received.

Central opened the R.O.T.C. social season with its elaborate military ball held February 21st.

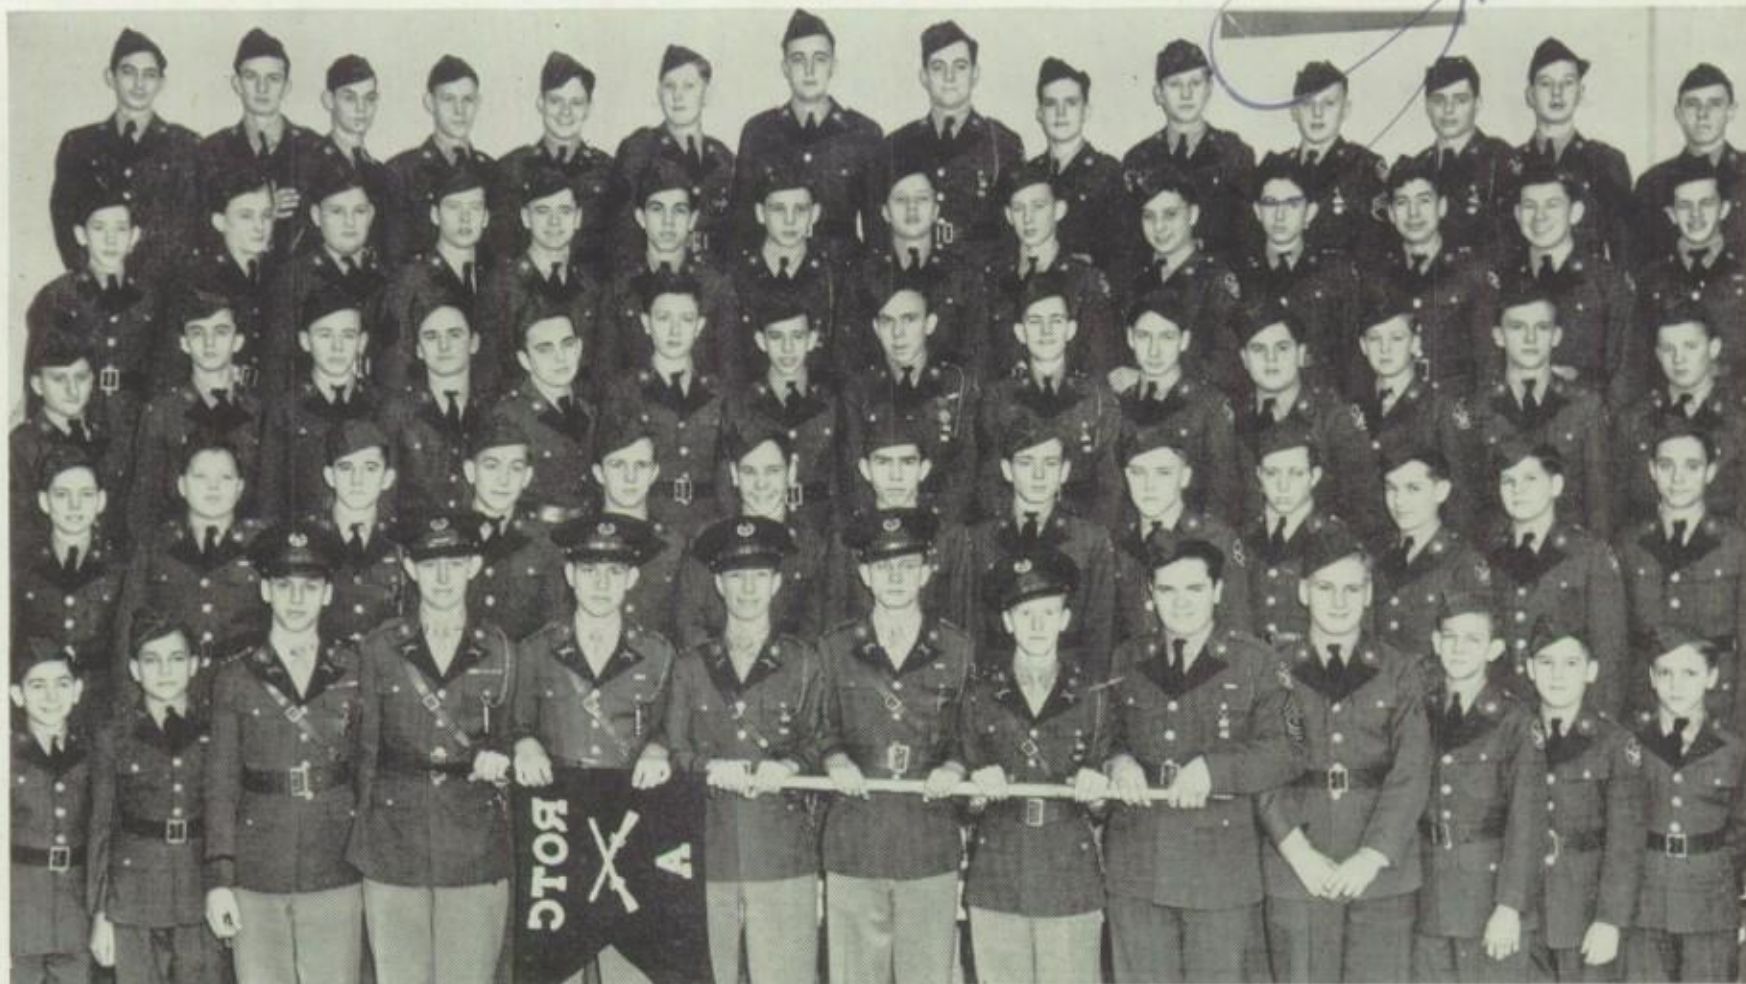

The annual Government Inspection and Field Day found the Eagle cadets and their officers giving their best, as always.

So, combining the effects of a new R.O.T.C. administration and fine loyalty and leadership from all sides, the curtain came down on another successful year for the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

R.O.T.C. MILITARY BALL

"The best ever!" was the claim in praise of the annual military ball held February 21 in Central's girls' gym.

Presiding over the grand formal occasion was the R.O.T.C. "Queen" for 1946, Miss Jean Arthur. The two reigning aides were Miss Marion Crosby and Miss Eleanora Walker, accompanied by Major Dick Whaley and Sergeant Bill LaFayette, respectively. Sergeant John Jeffrey was Queen Jean's escort.

Over one hundred couples kept the highly decorated girls' gym crowded as they danced to the "super-smooth" music of Warren Durrett's thirteen-piece orchestra.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clement, Mr. and Mrs. William Englund, and Captain C. V. Herndon, Kansas City's R.O.T.C. commander, and Mrs. Herndon.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It was a lovely day; spring had sprung! The trees surrounding the track cast an inviting shade over the industrious (?) track team of Central High. Occupying the most advantageous spot for rest before performing the arduous exercise of touching their toes, sat four likely-looking specimens of manhood, Bob Rick, Bill Orr, Jasper Marino and Dick Leedy. The ringing of the Central Junior bell brought back old memories to the fellows. Drowsily, Rick murmured, "Remember our days at Central Junior and how we boasted of being big freshmen? Chuck Anderson, Pat Harvey and Bob Owens led our freshman class."

Orr said that his biggest thrill was coming over to Central Senior. They all agreed! They were sophomores then and really had a year ahead of them. In the first Variety Nite, not many sophies participated, but little Ardra Armstrong was quite the singer. Probably the biggest thrill was Intersociety. Beverly Stanbrough showed her stuff by winning a gold medal in poem. The spring play was "Pride and Prejudice." Jean Arthur and Dick Harris had leading parts. Others in the play were Stanley Silverman, Joann Mowry and Marion Crosby.

Football was the next subject for discussion, and they found Hank Menze, John Willingham, "Punkin" Marino, Bob Owens and "Little" Joe Sembler winning first team letters. Rick disclosed that he was "water boy," or should we say manager?

Basketball came dribbling in, and first team honors went to Bob Holm, John Willingham, Bob Owens, Lee Jones and Randy Malone. The track squad was also good, with Jack Dice running the 880 and Bob Owens the 440.

Knowing more about Variety Nite, they all looked forward to it. The "fellas and gals" were now bolder and many juniors participated. Chuck Lewis was one of the student directors. Others who took part were Jerry McDaniel, Jerry Loman, Jo Ann Murphy, Donna McQuerry, Art Pascutti, "Hot Lips" Brennan, Dana Stockdale, and "Hot-fee" Anselmi. Central had a good dance band, with Jerry Loman, Tommy Carpenter and Jimmy Soule beating out some wicked notes.

The spring play found Bill Schwarz, Jean Arthur, LeRoy McCracken, Frank Canfield, Marion Crosby, Janice Payne, Pat Thompson, Joann Mowry, and Evelyn Levin with parts. Don Zook, Chuck Lewis and Dean Pressgrove composed the stage crew, while Ward Benson and Don Butterfield handled the sound effects.

The election of junior officers then came and Pat Brennan was elected President. The aides were Barbara Simons, Lee Jones and Art Pascutti.

Intersociety again became the item of discussion. As juniors, they showed their power. Gold medals were won by: Dick Harris, Declamation; Harold Altman, Formal Essay; Don Zook, Biography; Jerry McDaniel, poem. Silver medals were awarded to Henry Tager, Bob Holm and Naomi Oaks. Ruth Abend, Margo Barndt and Mary Jo Sinclair won bronze medals.

After a fleeting summer, everyone was anxious to return to school—(That was a joke, Son.) They were "Biggy" seniors now. Bill remarked about the names they had for the women that year. A "Poss" was a girl that was a "Pile of Sweet Stuff." Then there was "Bang Bang!" which was sarcastic. The girls had names for the "fellas," too!

Lieut. Colonel Jerry McDaniel headed the R.O.T.C., ably assisted by Major Wallace Bhenke and Major Dick Whaley.

On the subject of football, Jasper spoke about the time he hurt his knee and couldn't play. They all remembered how calmly Jasper took it! Menze, Willingham and Leedy that year made the All-Star eleven. Menze and Sembler were named co-captains. Art Pascutti, Bill Schwarz, Bill Maxwell and Ernie Anselmi received letters. The Eagle squad placed third in interscholastic standings. The basketball team was also fine, with Bob Holm, John Willingham, Randy Malone, Chuck Anderson, Bob Owens and Lee Jones all receiving letters. Holm was elected captain, and Reed was named team manager.

At the Big Six Track Meet at the Municipal Auditorium, Central placed third, being well represented by Carl Pule, Mickey Kincheloe, Jack Dice and Art Pascutti.

Dick mentioned Central's ruling hand, the Student Council. First term officers were: Lee Jones, president, and Pat Brennan, vice-president. Lee was also president of the All-City Student Council. Second term officers were: Dick Harris, president, and Lois Myers, vice-president.

Variety Nite zoomed around again under the student direction of Nancy Williams and Frank Canfield. Art Pascutti, Jo Krekel, Nancy Williams, John Jeffrey and Jean Burgess held the leads.

The Spring Play was really sharp, they all remembered. It was "Honor Bright," with John Jeffrey, Marion Crosby, Dick Harris, Jo Krekel, Don McDow, Jean Burgess, Frank Canfield, LeRoy McCracken and Allan Thornburg in the leads.

The results of the Senior Ballot found Lee Jones and Pat Brennan, Most Popular; Bob Owens and Jean Arthur, Most Active; Jerry Loman and Dorothy Alexander, Best Musicians; Art Pascutti and Lois Myers, Jolly Good Boy and Girl; John Jeffrey and Nancy Williams, Best Actor and Actress; Hank Menze and Liz Riley, Best Athletes; Jack Botz and Jean Burgess, Beau and Belle Brummel; and Jerry McDaniel and Margo Barndt, Best Students.

Then came the election of Senior Class Officers. Art Pascutti was elected President; Lee Jones, Vice-President; Pat Brennan, Secretary; Jack Botz, Treasurer; Jean Arthur, Giftorian; and Margo Barndt, Sergeant-at-Arms.

That year was Royal year at Central, with Jean Arthur crowned as Queen of Army Day and Pat Brennan as Princess at the Carnation Ball.

The sound of the Coach's whistle interrupted their reveries. The boys knew that sound well. It means—"Around the horn!" Struggling to their feet, they lazily jogged around the track.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Dear Students:

As a very pleasant year draws to a close and yours truly heaves a sigh of relief, we would like to look forward to the year 1960 and give you our prophecies for the Senior Class of 1946.

First we see that Art Pascutti, alias "Pascootie, the Cootie," top comedian, is now starring in Frank Canfield's sensational production, "Sally in Our Alley."

Aileen Myers and Dick Leedy are still residing on the Fifth Pink Cloud in West Paradise. Their neighbors to the south, Lee Jones and Margo Barndt, are busily preparing for the coming presidential campaign. Dick Harris and Charles Lewis, in their paper, "Bit-O-News," are giving him full support.

Jean Anne Burgess (Tondeleyo) and Jean "Queen of the Bowery" Arthur are still spying on "Leo the Lips" Vleisides' gang while waiting for Al and Holman to make a break from Sing Sing.

Bill Schwarz, Cliff Anderson, and Herbert Ditzler, millionaire owners of "The Café de Bubble Bursters," are currently featuring in their new revue, Pat "Torchy" Brennan singing "Later, Louie, When the Lights Are Low!" Other attractions are Virginia Brown and Shirley Rhodes, performers exquisé, with Virdelle McKinzie as pin seller.

Ronald Galloway, comic strip artist, is adding to his fame from "Gasoline Alley" with "Oil Boulevard." His literary (?) rival, Mary Jo Sinclair, has just completed "Turning Purple," sequel to "Forever Amber."

Facing the Hula Hut is the exclusive boarding house of Gwendolyn Young and Janice Payne.

Lois Myers, after swearing by her bubble gum to go straight, and having been vouched for by Supreme Court Judge, Hank Menze, has finally caught Bob Owens. They were married by Reverend Don Horton in the Little Lurch Around the Corner.

Miss Barbara "Sparkie" Simons, lovely socialite, is having her sixth coming-out party at the Wall-Flower Wisteria Hotel, managed by Don McDow.

Aaron Glickstein is Dean of Yale College, and is working with two of his professors, Gerald Ray McDaniel and Harold Altman, on a great new experiment, Radar Controlled Kiddle-Cars!

Those muscle-bound women, Jo Murphy, Maxine Bartlett, Marion Adams, and Donna Ballard have made names for themselves in the world of lady wrestlers.

"Swooner" Alex Pappas and his "Plump Pretties" are the current attractions on the Flit Parade.

Dr. Gerald Baum is on the staff at Johns Hopkins, and says that he owes all his success to his lovely young wife, Joann Mowry.

Jasper Marino, Bill Orr, Mike Konomos, and Mickey Kincheloe have spent the years since graduation working in the salt mines of Siberia. Robert Daniel Rick, United States Ambassador to Russia and Siberia, smuggles food and dice to them weekly.

Bev Stanbrough has completed her sixth volume of poetry for children—"A Child's Jungle of Worses."

Donna McQuerry and Carolyn Brott now live with other celebrities at the Waldorf Astoria and spend their evenings performing at Carnegie Hall and the Met.

Rosemarie DeMasters, Pat Thompson, Pauline Vivona and Dee Nightingale are the successful editors of the newest magazine, "Puff." The first edition had a complete sellout.

Ward "Flash" Benson is the only photographer the new movie star, Pat Grantham, will allow to photograph her. Note: Since Bugs Bunny's unexpected death last year, Pat is ably taking his place and eating his carrots—temporarily, of course!

Dorothy Ratcliff and Betty Reese were lost on the Islands of New Guinea and after extensive searching, were found by Jim Lawson and John Apel. The girls expressed no desire to return to civilization. (Neither did the boys!!)

Ernie Anselmi is employed as milkman on the Benton route, for the "Moooooo" Dairy, owned by Claude Brown.

Carl Apel is still looking for a job so that he can marry Margaret Beckerdile and not have to live off of the thousands she makes as an actress.

A lot of excitement was aroused in Ye Olde Central's halls when movie star John Willingham came back to visit his old school. Principal Bob Holm was talking to him and a number of the teachers were standing around watching—Liz Riley, gym teacher; Jo Krekel, English Lit teacher; Alice Mae Turpin, physics teacher; and the De Vauls heading a class in "Keeping Up with the World." Don Youngblood, the new photography teacher, is thinking of quitting—Why? He wants to get married and besides—he's afraid of the dark!

Nancy Williams and Marion Crosby are currently starring with John Jeffrey on Tux Theatre, but John's third wife, Dana Stockdale, is objecting, and the program is expected to go off the air soon.

Guess what!! Gwyllyn George finally said yes and Bo Stafford will soon be her eager bridegroom. What a darling couple they make.

"Life Could Be Beautiful, Hummmmmmm?" has prominent Central alumni in its cast, Stanley Silverman, Naomi Oaks, Madge Swerdfeger, and Rick Martin. Jim Soule is announcer.

Salty Anderson, proud owner of a pepper factory, has Gerald Rhodes and John Watkins as backers.

Jack Botz is the new swimming instructor at the Y.W.C.A. It is rumored that the girls there are very poor students and keep falling in the pool, hoping to be saved. Wonder why???

Sarah Kusnetzky and Gertrude Zurovsky have had a nervous collapse from overwork in the Flea Circus. They were taken to Henry Tager's home for the over-ambitious, and are said to be in a critical condition.

Well, chillun', as our heads nod droopily over our typewriters, and we feel that old man Deadline closing in on us, we must stop our minds from wandering any further!!

Respectfully???

Editors.

My dearest Martha,

Well honey my dream came true. For the last two years I have wanted you in Minerva & when you decided to go to Minerva at Sally's house I was the happiest girl alive. We have had some rare ol' times this year double dating & just messing around. I know you will go far in Minerva & I expect things from you. You have started off swell & I know you will end that way. Well, my third is about to an end so I've gotta close. All I can say is that you're a girl with a radiant personality & I have enjoyed your friendship immensely. I hope to see a lot of you in the future & never forget the gal that hangs out in the red barn at 3720. I've just got to quit although I have pages to say. Lois & Pat will love me!

all my love,

Pat Ginter

M.L.S. - the best of

My dear Martha,

Well sweetie the end of another year and it finds us closer friends than the year before. I can truly say I've thoroughly enjoyed every second of our friendship. We've had some simply lush times together — lying on your garage (trying to get a suntan), double-dating, chumming around together, & last but not least being club-sisters. You're really a grand girl with a bubbling personality & a charming & refreshing smile. Just to think our paths of life might never have met if you hadn't moved to Kansas City. But I guess it was by the grace of God that our paths were to meet and our friendship unyieldingly linked together. I'm really proud of such a sweet & well-liked girl as you and I believe that Danville's loss is Kansas City's gain.

All my love,

Patty

Dear Martha,

I started to write some where but unfortunately someone else wrote there. And now I'm hoping that you will be able to read this. We've sure had fun over the different weekends haven't we? Fun bushwhacking and stuff with those two grand fellows from Shawnee Mission. I hope you had a lot of fun this summer and you will have to write me and tell me all about it. I probably wouldn't have met you and become such good friends if it hadn't been for Shawnee Mission. You probably have heard a lot about me and I hope I get hope whenever I hear from you. I think you're just about the most wonderful girl I have ever met. You're very outgoing with a personality that you really think up as you keep up as you have this year - Best luck to you in the future and may all the success and happiness be yours in the future - I'll be seeing you again!

All my love to a sweet friend,
 Martha
